Brothers and Sisters;

This letter is further to our bulletin of June 26, 2017 with respect to our meetings with the Company in Ottawa.

During that meeting, Mr. Creel had asked the Union to consider an extension to our current contract. The Company has subsequently followed up and provided a proposal to extend the agreement until the end of 2018.

As you know, we have assembled our demands and acknowledge the significant issues facing our membership, including fatigue. Any agreement to extend the contract would have to address fatigue in meaningful manner consistent with our mandated objectives. Obviously, any extension to the contract would have to be ratified by the membership.

We have responded to the Company that we are willing to meet to discuss their proposal with the objective of negotiating an agreement that will be acceptable and in the best interest of our membership. On Friday, we confirmed the availability of the parties to meet the week of August 8 in Calgary and three additional days August 15-17, in Montreal.

We will provide further updates as they develop.

In Solidarity,

Dave Fulton
